Day 3, June 22, Monday: Landing Beaches - Bayeux

- Morning: Breakfast at your hotel.
Begin our day with a visit to the sites of the D-Day Landings, the Allied invasion of Normandy on June 6, 1944. Our first stop will be Sainte-Mere-Eglise, where some 13,000 American paratroopers dropped from the skies in the early hours of June 6, 1944 in support of the landings on Omaha Beach. We continue with a walk on Omaha Beach, where we will view the US Monument. Our day continues to Mulberry Harbor at Arromanches, before visiting the German Battery at Longues-sur-Mer. Our D-Day sightseeing concludes with time to explore Pointe du Hoc, the enemy command post of the entire invasion front, which is filled with monuments and memorials. We will also visit the American Military Cemetery of St. Laurent, where over 9,000 Americans who died in the Normandy campaign are buried. Time will be given for prayer and reflection. Independent lunch.
- Afternoon: Continue to Bayeux, a city rich in Norman history and the first French town to be liberated during the D-Day Invasion, on June 7, 1944. Visit the Gothic Cathedrale Notre-Dame, and the Musée de la Tapisserie de Bayeux, which houses the spectacular Bayeux Tapestry. One of the most famous tapestries in the world, it is actually embroidery on a band of linen, 231 feet long and 20 inches wide. The tapestry depicts some 58 scenes in eight colors, which tells the story of the conquest of England by William the Conqueror.
- Evening: 15 minutes informal concert at the Cathedral in Bayeux. Dinner and overnight at hotel in Bayeux. (B,D)

Day 4, June 23, Tuesday: Rouen - Giverny - Paris

- Morning: Buffet breakfast at hotel.
This morning, we visit the historic town of Rouen. It was here that Rollo, the Viking warrior and first duke of Normandy, converted to Christianity in the 10th century. Four centuries later in 1431, Joan of Arc, the patron saint of France, was tried for heresy and burnt alive at the stake. Rouen, packed with lovely churches and old half-timbered houses, include poignant reminders of Joan of Arc. A dazzling modern church and memorial dedicated to Joan can be seen. Visit the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Rouen, which was often chosen by the French Impressionist painter, Monet, as the facade building in many of his paintings. The Rouen Cathedral boasts a strong musical tradition since the Middle Ages. Its Choir was famous up to the French Revolution for singing from memory. The first major organist was Jean Titelouze, the so-called father of the French organ school, who occupied the post for the titular organist in 1588 – 1633.
- Noon: Lunch-Time Concert Presentation at the Cathedrale Notre Dame, presented by Grace Church Choir. Independent lunch.
- Afternoon: This afternoon, we continue to Paris, en-route we stop at Giverny. At Giverny we visit the glorious floral Gardens complete with a rainbow of blossoms, weeping willows, a Japanese footbridge and the water lilies that inspired so many French artists.
- Evening: Continue to Paris for hotel check-in. Overnight at hotel in Paris. (B)

Day 5, June 24, Wednesday: Highlight tour of Paris

- Morning: Buffet breakfast at hotel.
This morning, our guide will bring alive the remarkable sights of this magnificent and romantic city on the River Seine: the Champs Elysées, Arc de Triomphe, Tomb of Napoleon, Place de la Concorde, the Opéra the Bastille Square and The Place des Vosges, the oldest square in Paris and one of the most beautiful in the world.
Independent lunch.
- Afternoon: We enjoy a visit the Top of the Eiffel Tower. We will admire panoramic views of Paris. (entrance fees included).
- Evening: Overnight at hotel in Paris. (B)

Day 6, June 25, Thursday: AM/Notre Dame Cathedral; Sainte Chapelle - PM/Concert at La Madeleine Church

- Morning: Buffet breakfast at hotel.
After breakfast, we will be transferred to Ile de la Cité, where we will visit the magnificent cathedral, Notre-Dame-de-Paris. Its massive flying buttresses, famous towers, and elegant rose windows will take our breath away. We will have the opportunity to climb to the Bell Towers of the Notre Dame (entrance fees included).
10:00am - Rehearsal.
11:00am - 20 minute informal concert at the Notre Dame Cathedral. (subject to confirmation)
After our performance, walk to the nearby Sainte Chapelle, a masterpiece of flamboyant Gothic architecture built by Saint Louis in the heart of the Palais de la Cité on the Ile de la Cité in Paris. Discover its unique stained-glass windows rendering the air iridescent with light and color, symbols of the Heavenly Jerusalem.
Independent lunch. Return to hotel to freshen-up.
- Afternoon: 2:30pm - Transfer to the Church of La Madeleine.
3:00pm - Rehearsal
4:00pm - Concert presentation by Grace Church Choir.
- Evening: Overnight at hotel in Paris. (B)

Day 7, June 26, Friday: Louvre Museum & Montmartre

- Morning: Buffet breakfast at hotel.
This morning visit the world famous Louvre Museum, which boasts nearly 60,000 square meters of exhibition space to house its vast collection. The Louvre showcases artifacts, sculptures, paintings and drawings representing eleven millennia of history. In the sculpture wing, you can see the famed Venus de Milo and Winged Victory of Samothrace. The many galleries of paintings include works from noted masters, such as Rembrandt, Rubens, Raphael, Titian, and others, as well as da Vinci's Mona Lisa. But the immense collection inside is not the only reason to see the Louvre. After our visit we continue to tour the fascinating Artist Square and Sacré Coeur Basilica, with its huge bell tower and onion-shaped domes-one of the city's most familiar sights. This gleaming white church rises atop Montmartre, Paris' highest hill at 423 feet.
- Afternoon: Independent lunch and balance of the day at leisure.
- Evening: Overnight at hotel in Paris. (B)

Day 8, June 27, Saturday: AM/At Leisure - PM/Chartres

Morning: Leisurely breakfast at hotel. Morning at leisure.

Afternoon: This afternoon, we leave Paris on our day excursion to visit Chartres. The Cathedral spires of Chartres can be seen from miles away, seeming to rise out of the wheat fields of the Beauce Plains. At Chartres, we will visit Chartres Cathedral, the jewel in the crown of medieval churches in Europe and a testimony in stone to the religious fervor of the Middle Ages. Chartres Cathedral boasts an unrivaled expanse of sculpture, as well as one of Europe's most impressive collections of stained-glass windows.

Evening: Suggest to include dinner at a restaurant in Chartres?
8:00pm. Rehearsal at the Notre Dame Cathedral.
