FROM THE DESK OF DR. ALLEN

BRAVO EVERYONE on a wonderful and full autumn term. It was full of fun, music and so much growth.

I am very proud of everyone. Thank you for all your hard work, care and kind words. Let the music and beauty flow and bloom.

Sunday 5 January, Sarah Weber and a cast of amazing adults will offer Amahl and the Night Visitors in the Church at 4:00 p.m. It's a beautiful opera about a boy, his mother and a visit from the Wise Men. Menotti wrote it originally some 50 years ago for NBC, it was the first opera written for live TV. The program will last about an hour and is very child friendly. Bring family, friends and colleagues with their children.

Please accept my love and prayers for a joy filled, safe and Holy Christmas. Season's Greetings and peace, good health and prosperity in the New Year.
Love, Patrick

Free Admission, no tickets needed.

First Rehearsal back is Tuesday 7 January, no Tuesday Evensong, but Junior rehearsal will go from 5:00 - 6:30 p.m. in the Chantry.

Dr. Rose is packing his bags.
Check your schedules and make sure the special project is on for 4 through 9 February.

One long way looking ahead: The date of Parent Conferences at GCS changed after I received the schedule. What you have I'm sure is correct but it makes it necessary to cancel the morning senior practice originally schedule for 22 April, late morning. Instead, we will keep our normal morning rehearsal schedule that day. Thank you Shingmin for spotting this and making me aware.
