P. Allen Greetings -

Happy Friday, TGIF! What beautiful spring weather we have been having. It's wonderful seeing so many people out and about.

NEXT WEEK: We are back to the combination of in person and on line rehearsals. If your chorister has only been on line or on leave, maybe it's a good time to jump back in.

Just email me a day before so I can be prepared with music and shields.

I'm looking forward to the day when everyone can be home and we can be back in our choir stalls.

I feel guilty, there is not much to report other than stay well and have a beautiful weekend.

And as always, let your light shine, the world needs your healing powers and leadership.

All my love, Patrick

Someone was asking about the Choir Handbook recently.

The Handbook was created when we revised the whole training curriculum of the choir many years ago.

Creating the Handbook was the original reason to establish the Choir Steering Committee which has continued to be so much a part of our life since that time.

It was once passed out each new season, but went green and onto the website where it still lives in the choir family area.

The Handbook defines our community, our purpose, who we are and how we are organized. At the time we thought that this would help focus our purpose and commitment to one another as the choir community and it worked brilliantly.

It's content lies at the foundation of all we are and do.

I just remind all of it's presence and purpose. It is always there for you to review.

NOVICES

Rehearsals on Wednesday's after GCS dismissal.

GCS Students will be brought by their class to the Honor Gate where I will meet them and take them into the Honor Room.

Choristers coming from outside GCS will come up the path from the Chantry Broadway Gate to the Honor Room.

There at a safe distance we will take temperatures, wash hands and have a snack.

Then we will go slowly, single file into the Chantry put on our protective shields with our masks and practice.

Each chorister will have their own seat, music, pencil and shield that only they will touch.

Between rehearsals they will live on the rack under their chair.

Dismissal will be from the Chantry.

Parents enter from the main doors of the Chantry, you will hear us and we will dismiss from there one family at a time.

Once rehearsal begins I will lock the honor room door to the garden for security.

The main Chantry doors will be open for the whole rehearsal to let fresh air move more freely.

When the Wednesday Section fills up we can open up a second section on Thursdays at GCS dismissal.

We might even make one boys and one girls, but that is getting ahead of ourselves.

RECRUITING IS NEVER OVER!

This is our slogan, so if anyone asks, it is never too late to join the choir family and be part of this special community as the music blooms.

Recruiting is never over and normally we would be starting that phase of the season now. The brochure has been posted to school families.

If you know of families not at GCS who should receive it, let me know and I'll will include them.

Help spread the word that families interested in joining should email or call me so I can put them on the mailing list for information and to get them in the loop.
