P. Allen Greetings -

TGIF, the last weekend of summer - so to speak.
I hope everyone has had a wonderful and safe week getting back into rhythm, both fall rhythm, but also the new "in person" rhythm after over a year of so many isolations and restrictions.

The choristers are doing a fantastic job already, rehearsals are fun, musical and full of discovery. I am so proud of everyone.

Parents, I think it may be harder for you.
We have to re-discover our rhythm in community together fresh and new.

The choristers have been inside the building working all through the pandemic. For their safety, you stayed outside most of last season.

FEEL INVITED to come in, get involved and discover all the blessings of being a choir parent. The only requirements are to be vaccinated and masked.

Sign up to be a choir parent helper, if the list is full, show up anyway. Remember, rehearsals are closed to the public, but parents are always welcome. If you find yourself free and want to sit in, you are welcome to do that. It's lovely to be in the church and meditate to the sound of their voices.

Think about attending the services your chorister sings (but you don't have to limit attendance to those times) and participating in the programs the church offers. The blessings are hard to articulate, they bloom in the moment and just have to be lived.

Reach out and let me help you find your place and new rhythms. A community is only as special as those who gather, and your presence makes it more beautiful.

In these economic and intellectual times, lots of words are used to describe success and failure in a numerical/letter of the law style.

Music and Art live across the tracks in a more abstract world of beauty and spirit. Let's live more in that world as we heal and create the future together.

Big hug, love and smiles, p.

The Choir Handbook.

The Handbook was created when we revised the whole training curriculum of the choir many years ago.

Creating the Handbook was the original reason to establish the Choir Steering Committee which has continued to be so much a part of our life since that time. It was once passed out each new season, but went green and onto the website where it still lives in the choir family area.

The Handbook defines our community, our purpose, who we are and how we are organized. At the time we thought that this would help focus our purpose and commitment to one another as the choir community and it worked brilliantly. It's content lies at the foundation of all we are and do. I just remind all of it's presence and purpose. It is always there for you to review.

RECRUITING IS NEVER OVER!

This is our slogan, so if anyone asks, it is never too late to join the choir family and be part of this special community as the music blooms.

Recruiting is never over and normally we would be starting that phase of the season now. The brochure has been posted to school families. If you know of families not at GCS who should receive it, let me know and I'll will include them.

Help spread the word that families interested in joining should email or call me so I can put them on the mailing list for information and to get them in the loop.
