*P. Allen Greetings -

Blessed Feast of All Saints'

Today is the day that gives Halloween it's name, as All Hallows Eve.

Wishing all who celebrate, A Happy Diwali, may the light of good triumph over the darkness of evil.

Don't forget to Fall Back Saturday Evening! Set your clocks back one hour before bedtime.

Sunday 3 November, The Sunday after All Saints' Day
The Combined Choirs will be singing.

Following the service I hope we can capture our annual choir portraits for the GCS Yearbook and PR needs.

Everyone including members of the Adult Choir should plan on staying for around 30 minutes following the service to get this done.

If it's a stunning day, perhaps out in Huntington Close, if a grey day, at the High Altar.

Many thanks to Jason McDonald and Viv Skrypek who are our photographers from the GCS Team.

Parents, I need your help. Would you assist your chorister in hanging up their vestments for the coming month or so to teach a good procedure?

- 1. Put surplice/white on the correct hanger.
- 2. Put cassock/black over the white on same hanger.
- 3. Button top two buttons of cassock - very important.
- 4. Place hanger in the correct spot on the rack in number order neatly.

If we can get this procedure learned as a habit our vestments will wear better when on us and last longer. Many thanks.

Parents, please sign up to be a choir parent helper, breakfast provider or special activity volunteer. It takes a community!

Start up is officially over, recruiting never stops....time to reduce content in the newsletter. Please use this link to find materials in the September issues you may want to access such as the orientation materials and other information.

Laundry Tip: the robes are a synthetic material for ease of throwing in the wash and dryer. If you pull them out of the dryer as soon as they are dry and hang them up they don't wrinkle. No amount of ironing takes out the wrinkles, the fabric is designed to be hung up warm.
